SEVERE EARTHQUAKE IN RUMANIA: FIRST SHOCK LASTED 5 MINUTES

LONDON, Nov. 10. (Reuter).—A severe earthquake occurred in Rumania this morning and in Bucharest the first shock was felt at 3.45 a.m. (local time) and lasted for five minutes. Extensive damage was done to many parts of the city, including the Royal Palace, the American Embassy and the War Office. The new Foreign Office building cracked from top to bottom, while a new ten-storey building was demolished, burying 400 occupants. German soldiers are assisting the Iron Guards in clearing debris and rescue work.

JAPAN HAS SUFFERED MILLION CASUALTIES

CHUNGKING, Nov. 10. (Reuter).—Japan, in the three years of hostilities, has suffered one million casualties of which one quarter were killed and the remainder wounded or sick, states General Pan Chung-hsi, Chief of General Staff of the Chinese Army, in reviewing the Sino-Japanese military situation. Japan can mobilise 75 or 80 divisions of which 42 divisions are being used in China and 9 in Manchuria, or two-thirds of Japan's total strength. The cost of the campaign to Japan was 16,000 million yen or 10 times the total of the Russo-Japanese war budget.

CAR DAMAGED BY FIRE

As S. M. Ismail was turning private car No. 2412 round from the road leading to Ngau Tau Kok Village, near Kowloon, City, at 5 p.m. on Saturday, the car went off the road and fell a depth of 10 feet onto the foreshore where it caught fire. The Kowloon Fire Brigade extinguished the flames of the engine. The car was, however, badly damaged. Both S. M. Ismail and S. C. Ismail received injuries which were treated at the Kowloon Hospital, where the former is now detained. DRIVER INJURED The driver of motor-cycle No. 3601 was admitted to the Queen Mary Hospital yesterday suffering from injuries received as the result of a collision with bus No. 613 near Possession Street.

THANKSGIVING DAY NOV. 21

President Roosevelt proclaimed that Thursday, Nov. 21, shall be observed as Thanksgiving Day, two weeks earlier than the usual day. Mr. Roosevelt has ordered that the theme on the day shall be thanks for American preservation in these days of sorrow and tribulation elsewhere in the world.

TODAY'S WAR SUMMARY

MR. NEVILLE CHAMBERLAIN, Prime Minister until May this year and who resigned from the office of Lord President of the Council on Oct. 3, died on Saturday at the age of 72. In a tribute, Mr. Bevin, the Labour Minister, said that the world that Mr. Chamberlain knew would never return. The death is also announced of Senator Key Pittman, a strong opponent of the dictators, at the age of 68. He was Chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. SPEAKING IN LONDON ON SATURDAY, the Prime Minister, Mr. Churchill, said that the fact remains that at the present time what we have got to show is survival with increasing strength and inflexible will to win. GREEK MOBILISATION IS NOW COMPLETE. A crack Italian Alpini division which was encircled some days ago in the Pindus sector (central) of the front may now be considered to have been annihilated. Meanwhile, it is stated in London that there is no discord between the Axis partners over the Italo-Greek war. THE WAR HAS BEEN BROUGHT VERY NEAR to the Australians with the sinking of an American ship reported to have been mined off the coast of Australia. If it is proved that Axis mines have actually been sown off the Australian coast the question must be faced whether Australia must be declared a combat zone from which United States vessels will be excluded under the Neutrality Law.

"WE HAVE GOT TO SHOW INFLEXIBLE WILL TO WIN": STIRRING SPEECH BY MR. WINSTON CHURCHILL

NO DISCORD BETWEEN THE AXIS PARTNERS

LONDON, Nov. 10. (Reuter).—There is no discord between the Axis partners over the Italo-Greek war.

Information received in London from a Balkan observer well acquainted with the internal situation both in Italy and Germany states that it would be a great illusion to think there is at the present juncture. It is believed however that a serious friction will eventually arise between them.

MUCH DISCONTENT Information reaching observers from Berlin says that there is much discontent in the German General Staff and the Chancellery over the initial failure of the Italian Army in Greece.

It is pointed out that this does not mean the partners are in any real thing but in accord over the respective roles they have agreed to play in the Eastern Mediterranean for the domination of the Suez Canal and Egypt.

They wish to succeed this aim if possible without involving themselves in the tremendous sacrifices which the sending of a large expeditionary force through Bulgaria, Turkey and Palestine would involve.

EMP. OF JAPAN BOMBED

NEW YORK, Nov. 10. (Reuter).—The Canadian Pacific liner, Empress of Japan, of 26,000 tons, was bombed and disabled in the North Atlantic, according to an unconfirmed report from Japanese sources.

VICHY SUBMARINE SCUTTLED

ELIZABETHVILLE (BELGIAN CONGO), Nov. 10. (Reuter).—The crew of the Vichy submarine Poncellet scuttled the vessel near Port Gentil (Gabon) on the arrival of Free French forces, according to news from Brazzaville.

There was no fighting, and the crew was rescued. It was announced that "police operations" are being successfully continued by Free French forces in the region of Libreville which is the only port in French Equatorial Africa left in the hands of the Vichy Government.

DID HITLER SPEAK IN MUNICH BEER CELLAR? BROADCAST POSTPONED

LONDON, Nov. 10. (Reuter).—In some quarters here it is questioned whether Herr Hitler ever made his speech in the beer cellar at Munich on Friday night, writes Reuter's Diplomatic correspondent. The fact that the broadcast of the speech has been postponed three times at least suggests that there is such interference by the attentions of British bombers while the record is being made that it has been found necessary either to patch together the usable parts of the original with new material. It will naturally be some time before the world really knows what happened in the famous cellar while Hitler was speaking, or about to speak, but people can form their own impressions of the scenes that must have attended the sudden and entirely unexpected visit of the British raiders.

A REHASH Of the speech itself, the correspondent says that it was a rehash of all the old arguments and statements with which we have become so familiar in Hitler's speeches. Hitler seems to have dwelt a little more than usual on his confidence in his power but he was less cocksure as to the immediate future.

"We have surmounted the perils so far, but the fact remains at the present time that what we have got to show is survival with increasing strength and inflexible will to win."

"The outside world which a little while ago took only a modest view of our prospects, now believes that Britain will survive."

NOT ONE JOT Mr. Churchill said that in spite of all the blows we had endured, under all the pains we bore amid so many deadly threats, "we have not abandoned one jot of any of our obligations or undertakings towards captive or enslaved countries in Europe or towards any of those countries who still act with us. On the contrary since we have been alone in this world to struggle, we have reaffirmed or defined more precisely all the cause of all the countries with whom or for whom we drew the sword."

"Austria, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Norway, Holland and Belgium, the greatest of all, France, and the latest of all, Greece—for all those, we will toil and strive and our victory will supply the liberation of them all."

MUNITION PRODUCTION The reason we have been promised by the United States took the form at present of the most abundant, sharing with us of the fruits of the gigantic munition production which is now being set on foot throughout "matchless" workshops, furnaces and foundries of the United States.

The reason we did not take the initiative against the enemy was that our production in munitions was now only in its second year, and enormous factories and plant which were laid down on or shortly before the outbreak of the war, were only now beginning to come into production.

The Germans have long passed the culminating point of munition production.

DEATHS OF MR. NEVILLE CHAMBERLAIN AND SEN. PITTMAN

MR. NEVILLE CHAMBERLAIN

Universal Regret

The death was announced in London yesterday of MR. NEVILLE CHAMBERLAIN, late Prime Minister, at the age of 72. He died peacefully at his home in the country on Saturday night. Mr. Cyril Lakin, political commentator, referring to Mr. Chamberlain, said: "He was a great man."

BIG JAPANESE DRIVE TO SOUTH CONTEMPLATED: ATTACK WILL BE ON BRITISH INTERESTS FIRST

"UNDER GERMAN PRESSURE, THE JAPANESE MAY BELIEVE THAT THE TIME HAS COME FOR DOING SOMETHING OUT OF THE ORDINARY. So far their campaign in China has not shown any variety of method or style and since the number of Japanese troops available for any such plan is by no means sufficient, it is possible that those in Kiangsi are being withdrawn for the purpose of starting something spectacular—some new adventure that they are contemplating in a big drive to the south, with the Dutch East Indies, the Philippines and British possessions in the East as their objective."

"The attack on British interests, you may be sure, will come first and on Dutch and American interests later. It is, of course, in the interest of Germany that Japan should drag America into the war and it will then be in the Pacific that America will have to defend herself, thus leaving Germany a freer hand in the west. Will Japan be quite so foolish to take this step? I have my doubts about that."

This is what MR. CYRIL LAKIN, commentator on political events, had to say when he spoke in London last night on the subject of the withdrawal of Japanese troops from a number of points in China.

"The Axis appears to be carrying out some usual sort of plan," he said, "and it looks as if they are hoping to get something from Japan at last. The withdrawal of Japanese troops is being treated in Axis circles as presaging some sensational development in Japan's policy."

Commenting on the events of the past week, Mr. Lakin said: "Mr. Molotov is going to Berlin. I wonder why? It cannot be for the sake of Herr von Ribbentrop's blue eyes and it cannot be for the purpose of deepening the friendly relations between the two countries, as Berlin puts it."

LULL IN OPERATIONS IN GRAECO-ITALO HOSTILITIES: POSITIONS REINFORCED

LONDON, Nov. 9 (Reuter).—Yesterday, the thirteenth day of the Italian attack on Greece, saw no major developments in the war situation on the Greek frontier; the Greeks have advanced in the centre, there is no change in the north sector of the front and on the coast the main Italian attack has not yet developed.

Yesterday's Italian High Command communique claims that their troops have reinforced their bridgeheads on the south bank of the Kalamas River.

In Athens, the Greek military spokesman commented on the Italians' complete lack of success, declaring: "On the Pindus front we are counting the booty after encircling the enemy."

The Italian column which has been encircled is believed to be still holding out but it is certain that some of them have surrendered. The Italian force was carrying out an isolated operation of the nature of a raid or a scouting expedition.

HOWITZERS CAPTURED

The Greeks yesterday took 150 prisoners, including five officers, five howitzers, seven machine-guns and other stores in attacks at different points in local operations.

The Italian air force has slackened off and their activity was described in Athens as "unimportant." One Italian plane has been shot down from the ground.

The Greeks are putting up a stubborn resistance and while they admit their withdrawal from the Kalamas River they deny they have been pushed back 23 miles inside the frontier, as the Italians claim.

GREEK MORALE HIGH

Correspondents report that Greek morale is at the highest pitch and the Greeks have been encouraged by the presence of British forces.

British planes chased Italian bombers away from Athens, the enemy raiders dropping their bombs into the sea, and the R.A.F. is continuing reconnaissances over Albania and the Ionian and Aegean Seas.

LULL IN OPERATIONS

A Greek communique says artillery fire was not heavy yesterday, while Italian activity was also small.

One village was bombed. The Ministry of Public Safety in Athens stated that the Italians made no air raids on the interior of the country during Friday.

JAPAN SHORT OF TROOPS

Nanning Withdrawal Is Explained

SHANGHAI, Nov. 9 (Reuter).—Refutation of the Japanese claim that Nanning has lost its strategic value since the invasion of French Indo-China was made by General Pai Chung-hsi in a review of the Military situation in China at Central Kuomintang headquarters in Chungking, the Shanghai "Shi Wan Pao" said yesterday.

If this lame excuse were true, General Pai declared, then why did the Japanese capture the town at such great cost in manpower and resources and why did they hold it for nearly a year?

The withdrawal of Japanese forces from Nanning, he said, was due to their shortage of troops.

Japan could only raise a maximum of 75 to 80 full divisions of troops and has up till now sent 42 divisions to China and nine and a half divisions to Manchuria, which means she has already used up two-thirds of her available men.

BORDER DISPUTE AGGRAVATED

Hanoi Authorities Call Up Men

HANOI, Nov. 9 (Reuter).—Reacting aggravation of the border dispute between Indo-China and Thailand, the authorities in Hanoi during the past few days have been calling to the colours all French citizens between the ages of 40 and 50, according to a semi-official Japanese report yesterday.

In the meantime the Indo-China army in the Tongking area is moving a large force southward, while it is estimated that half the strength of the Indo-China air force has already been transferred to bases in the south, the Japanese report adds.

S'hai Courts Transfer

SINO GOVT. LODGE STRONG PROTEST

SHANGHAI, Nov. 9 (Reuter).—The Chinese Foreign Minister has lodged a strong protest with the French Embassy over the transfer of the Second Special District Court and the Third District Court to the French Concession in Shanghai to the Nanking regime, stated a Chungking message to the National Herald yesterday.

Operation of Chinese courts in the French Concession will hereafter be considered unlawful and the French authorities will be held responsible for all consequences arising from the transfer of the courts, said the Foreign Office spokesman in Chungking.

STATUS OF M. COSME

"What we are more concerned about is the status of M. Henry Cosme, French Ambassador to China, now in Chungking, since M. de Mergerie, as French Consul-General in Shanghai, has given tacit recognition to the Nanking regime as the lawful government of China," the Chinese-American Daily News in Shanghai declared editorially.

The Foreign Office revealed that the French Embassy had formally notified the Chinese Foreign Ministry that transfer of the courts to the Nanking regime had been effected under an agreement signed between the French Concession authorities and the Nanking regime.

DANGER OF MOVES

The Chinese Government had previously urged the French authorities to reject all Japanese attempts to take over the courts, pointing out the danger of such attempts to the lives and property of Chinese residents in the French Concession.

WITHDRAWAL OF WEIHAWEI

FOR DURATION OF THE WAR

SHANGHAI, Nov. 9 (Reuter).—The long record of British activity at Weihaiwei, one of the principal garrison points in North China for many years, has been brought to a close, at least for the duration of the war.

The British naval maintenance party, it was announced yesterday, has been withdrawn and all stores in the naval depot shipped to Hongkong for use elsewhere.

This action is in accordance with the previous announcement that the British Government had decided to withdraw naval personnel and stores from the naval depot at Weihaiwei for the duration of the war.

Before its retrocession to China in 1930, Weihaiwei was for more than 30 years under British rule.

MOSCOW'S PART IN THE WAR

NEW YORK, Nov. 9 (Reuter).—A parley between the German, Italian and Soviet Foreign Ministers, to discuss the part Moscow shall play in the war, is expected to be held next week, according to a Rome telegram to the New York Times yesterday. Place of the meeting is not disclosed but it is thought to be Germany, adds the telegram.

Meanwhile, in the opinion of military circles in London, the Italian attack has not yet developed in the coastal area.

NORTHERN SECTOR

A commentator in London yesterday pointed out that there was no change in the northern sector while the Greeks have advanced slightly in the Pindus sector.

It is reported they are within 10 kilometres of the frontier. Italian troops in this region are understood to be still surrounded in the neighbourhood of Patrakton.

From authoritative quarters it is learned that there is no truth in reports that various bodies of British troops have been seen in Athens.

VENEZIA BRIGADE

A report from Athens received in London stated that the Italian troops surrounded on the Pindus front belong to the Venezia Brigade, and comprise two regiments of infantry and one of mountain artillery.

Italian prisoners who arrived in Salonika yesterday included 31 Alpine troops who formerly served on the French front.

Their Greek guards stated that when the Italians were taken prisoner they offered all their money for food.

JAPANESE REFUTES WITHDRAWAL

TOKYO, Nov. 9 (Reuter).

According to the Domei agency yesterday official Japanese circles describe as a pure and simple fabrication a report circulated by the German Trans-Ocean news agency that the Japanese forces would evacuate Ichang within the next few days.

It was declared in Tokyo that Japanese troops have just completed mopping up operations round the port and have occupied Nantongkwan, north-west of Ichang.

GERMAN NIGHT RAIDERS GET HOT RECEPTION

LONDON, Nov. 10 (Reuter).—Still more numerous and heavier guns were used against German night raiders attempting to pierce London's defences during Friday night. Main raids during the night were on London and surrounding districts, says an Air Ministry communique.

The attacks were heavy at first but soon diminished in intensity though they continued on a much reduced scale for some time after midnight.

Some were killed and injured and a number of buildings damaged but damage and casualties were less than the previous night. Raids were also made on other parts of the country, little damage and few casualties were reported.

FLARES DROPPED

Many flares were dropped in the raids on London and these were machine-gunned from the ground and many extinguished. A high explosive bomb fell between a casualty clearing station and a shelter in which several hundreds were taking refuge. There were no casualties though several shops were damaged.

Another church was hit in the course of the night.

HEAVY BARRAGE

The raiders met with a heavy barrage in the Thames Estuary and watchers say two were shot down by British fighters. A north-east town was twice raided during the night but the

BATTLE OF THE BOMBS: BRITAIN'S NEW AIRCRAFT

With every bombing raid launched by the Royal Air Force the compulsion to counter-attack grows upon the enemy. Whether now or later, there must be the battle of the bombs, writes Major Oliver Stewart.

Germany's first raiding programme, which was to have grown uninterrupted to overwhelming might, was wrecked against our defences.

But the very fact that the Bomber Command of the Royal Air Force—often aided by the Coastal Command and by the Fleet Air Arm—continues to hit the enemy bases and sources of supply with mounting force and frequency enforces a riposte. For the same reason the future assault must be bigger and differently planned no matter what calls it makes upon German reserves.

The signs that British defences will meet it as decisively as before and that British bombers will match weight with weight and continuously maintain a favourable margin of military effect are good.

No part of the Prime Minister's recent speech was more profoundly and encouragingly significant than his revelation that aircraft output has been so much above wastage (which would include the undisclosed figures of aircraft destroyed on the ground and lost in accidents) that not only have losses been made up, but that our bomber and fighter strength are larger than they have ever been.

COMPLEX SYSTEM

The complex system of information gathering through the Observer Corps, of communications, and interchange of plans between the operations rooms, has been invented and perfected in England, and there is no indication that any other country has a comparable system. Our air defences derive much of their efficiency from the ground.

Their chief purpose during future attacks must be to protect air bases. Those should now receive priority over all other targets whatsoever.

A carefully thought out system also controls the work of our bombers, but the control is less direct, and when once the bomber sets out it becomes an independent unit.

Censorship restrictions on the mention of the new and heavier heavy bombers which are in production for the Royal Air Force were removed last week. Everybody in aviation has known of these enormous machines, and it is certain that Herr Weninger, the German air attaché, and that inquisitive German engineer who used to go round the factories with him, took back to Germany some information about them. Nevertheless, the censorship restrictions were until now desirable.

THREE NEW TYPES

There are three different types of these machines, and they are approaching the time when they will be in service in numbers. They are huge aircraft which, when seen standing on aerodromes, dwarf the surrounding houses. They bristle with guns.

At night, and possibly in cloudy and foggy conditions, they will be able to develop a terrific and hitherto unattainable striking power. But they will, of course, be unusable on clear days without heavy casualties. And the man-hours needed for their production make such casualties uneconomic.

By day, in clear weather, bombing can be done without excessive casualties, either by giving the aircraft very high performance, with a top speed nearly that of the interceptor fighters, or by giving them strong fighter escorts. High performance is a more efficient form of defence for day bombers than fighter escorts.

In preparations for the battle of bombs, therefore, the provision

PREMIER PAYS TRIBUTE TO GREEKS

LONDON, Nov. 9 (Reuter).

A tribute to the magnificent fight of the Greek people was paid by Mr. Winston Churchill speaking at the Lord Mayor's Banquet in London yesterday.

Mr. Churchill expressed the sympathy and admiration of the people of Britain for Greece.

"To them we send, from the heart of old London, in the midst of our burdens and anxieties, an assurance that we will do our best to help them until the crimes that hang round the neck of Mussolini and disgrace the Italian name are removed."

PERMANENT PEACE CAN ONLY BE BROUGHT ABOUT BY UNDERSTANDING

Remembrance Service At St. John's Cathedral

"A new world cannot be built on hatred—on thoughts of vengeance. Though many people seem to doubt, or forget, it is still the Christian's view that peace—permanent peace—can only be brought about by endurance and understanding," said the Very Rev. J. L. Wilson, Dean of St. John's Cathedral, in his sermon at the Remembrance Service held at the Cathedral yesterday morning.

H.E. the Acting Governor, Lieut. Gen. E. F. Norton, C.B., D.S.O., M.C., accompanied by Capt. S. H. Batty-Smith, A.D.C., H.E. the General Officer Commanding, Major Gen. A. E. Grasett, D.S.O., M.C., Hon. Rear-Admiral A. M. Peters, D.S.C., R.N., and Mrs. Peters, Sir Atholl and Lady MacGregor, Rev. N. V. Halward, M.C., and other leading members of the community, attended.

The National Anthem was sung at the commencement of the service. The first Lesson was read by Dean Wilson, and the second by H.E. the Acting Governor.

Psalm 84 was the special psalm for the day, whilst the hymns were 233, 446 and 318.

Taking for his text "These all died in faith not having received what was promised them" (St. Paul's Epistle to the Hebrews, Chapter XI, verse 39), the Dean said that St. Paul made perfectly clear what was in the mind of God as to what we should do. The writer masses all his facts through history and, in presenting them, showed that men were willing to hold on to an ideal in faith, in belief, and in the promise of God. Jesus was the author of that great faith.

The lowly Carpenter, said the Dean, living in the hills, sat dreaming of the people being brought back to God—and felt quite certain that God meant him to do it, not by might, not by treachery, not by bribery, but by choosing twelve simple men who had the necessary faith, physical and moral courage, and be ready to suffer—to be poor—to be unpopular—and to bear physical pains.

WHEN CALL COMES

It is easy enough for the young to have visions, but what about the older ones? Is it as easy for them to dream dreams? How many have the courage, when the call comes for service in the course of freedom, to turn a deaf ear to those friends who say "Do not be foolish. Why suffer hardships, and pains, when there are so many easy and more pleasant things to do?"

"What about those we commemorate today? Were they fools to have died for their idea of freedom, truth and democracy? They died in good faith and their deeds live on forever. Let us also have the courage to face up to the sorrows of partings, losses, and death of those near and dear to us, and to resolve that when the present conflagration is ended to help in the building of a new world."

AT ST. ANDREW'S

Remembrance services were also held at St. Andrew's Church yesterday, when at matins, which was broadcast, the Rev. J. R. Higgs, Vicar, preached, while in the evening, the Rev. S. Kinchcliffe, Senior Chaplain to the Forces delivered the sermon.

Dr. Ng Kwok-on and his bride, formerly Miss Wong Su-kong. —(King's Studio).

CABARET-DANCE

Successful Function At Peninsula Hotel

A substantial sum was raised by the Hongkong Students' Relief Association on Saturday night at their Cabaret and Dance held in aid of relief funds, at the Rose Room of the Peninsula Hotel.

The ball-room was crowded to capacity with all present in rare good humour. To ensure the success of the function about thirty charming young ladies acted as dance hostesses, whilst in between dances a cabaret show was staged by local leading amateur artists.

CONTROL OF INDUSTRY

Amplification of Regulation 50 of the Defence Regulations published in June this year is contained in Saturday's Government Gazette.

The new regulation extends considerably the power of the competent authority to control all undertakings engaged in work essential to the life of the community and the defence of the Colony.

A new regulation immediately following Regulation 50 gives H. E. the Governor power to declare "controlled" any undertaking he thinks desirable, and thereupon the competent authority can order how the work shall be carried on, the persons to be employed, and the remuneration to be paid.

Chemistry Society Meeting

The Hongkong Branch of the Chinese Chemistry Society will hold a meeting at the Windsor Cafe on Nov. 12 at 6 p.m., during which lectures will be delivered by Drs. Tseng Jui-hsien and Kung Hsien-pao, well-known Chinese chemists.

Dr. Tseng, a graduate of Ohio State University, U.S.A., has been professor of chemistry of Shanghai University, Shanghai, and is the author of several well-known chemistry works. Dr. Kung, of California State University, is now a professor of Lingnan University.

SALE OF POPPIES

Members of the A.N.S., and Nursing Division of the H.K.V. D.C. were early on the streets, with their trays of Poppies, on Saturday morning, and many experienced no difficulty in selling off their first trays before 10 a.m.

The amount collected could not be ascertained as the collection boxes were sent to the Hongkong & Shanghai Banking Corporation in the afternoon, but it was believed to be substantial. The boxes will be, a Daily Press reporter was told, opened tomorrow and the total collected will be announced within the next two or three days.

CLIPPER DUE IN HONGKONG TODAY

The CHINA CLIPPER is scheduled to arrive on Wednesday afternoon and will leave the following morning.

Board Of Education Meeting

Experimental Scheme Approved

A meeting of the Board of Education was held in the Board Room of the Bank of East Asia on Wednesday, Nov. 6. The Chairman welcomed Prof. L. Forster, M.A., Dr. G. H. Hargreaves, M.B., Ch.B., Mr. T. R. Rowell, B.Sc., and V. Rev. Father R. W. Gallagher, S.J., as new members to the Board.

The Board considered proposed amendments to the Draft of Part IV of the new Grant Code dealing with regulations concerning Admission, Attendance, and Curriculum as put forward by the Grant Schools Council. Certain changes were agreed to, and the amended form of Part IV of the Code was unanimously approved by the Board.

Consideration was given to a memorandum of the Vernacular Education Sub-Committee on the question of permitting separate morning and afternoon sessions in Chinese Primary Vernacular Schools.

TWO-DIVISION SCHOOLS

After discussion it was unanimously agreed that under existing conditions in view of the large number of refugees in the Colony, the experiment of "two-division" schools appears to be justifiable as a temporary measure subject to the following restrictions:—

- (1) The experiment to be confined to Lower and Higher Primary Vernacular Schools.
- (2) The length of the scheme should be limited, permission to continue to be requested at the end of each school year.
- (3) Each child should have a minimum of 22 hours schooling per week.
- (4) No teacher should be employed in the schools for more than 30 hours each week.
- (5) Any consequent changes in the curriculum to be subject to the approval of the Director of Education. New time-tables, which must be submitted, to show clearly how the number of periods or length of periods has been reduced.
- (6) Permission to operate "two-division" schools must not be used as an argument against building additional or new premises as soon as circumstances permit.
- (7) All schools desiring to operate on a "two-division" system must obtain the previous permission of the Director.

BANKRUPTCY COURT

An application for a receiving order against the Chung Shun firm, of No. 128, Des Voeux Road, Central, was brought before the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, at the Bankruptcy Court on Saturday.

The applicants were the Tung Kee Firm, of No. 1, Mercer Street, who were represented by Mr. C. A. Sutherland Ross.

Mr. Ross said the managing partner of the Chung Shun firm had absconded and an execution warrant had been issued against the firm and the goods sold. Proceeds from the sale amounted to $6,400.

Fung Sui-ting, manager of the petitioning firm, said that a sum of $2,233.33 was owing for goods sold and delivered. The Chung Shun firm had been his customer for many years. In October he heard that the firm was in difficulties and when he visited the premises found the bailiffs there.

The application was granted.

A memorial service for the late Lu Mei-ying, under the joint auspices of the China National Aviation Corporation and the Kim-lin Girls' University, Hongkong Alumni Association, was held at Christ Church, Kowloon, yesterday afternoon.

A large gathering of the deceased's friends and schoolmates were present at the service.

The late Lu Mei-ying, 26, was the stewardess in the C.N.A.C. airliner "Chungking" which was shot down recently at Chanyi, Taiwan.

Russian Lady Wins Claim In Shanghai

ACTION AGAINST TRAM COY.

Judgment for $6,790.92 and costs was given in favour of Mrs. I. A. Doubrovo at the French Consular Court, Shanghai, in proceedings brought by her against the French Tramway Company for injuries caused to her by a trolley-car in Rue Lafayette on April 21, reports the North China Daily News.

THROWN ON PAVEMENT

Represented by Mr. Paul Fremet, the plaintiff stated that she was riding in a rickshaw in Rue Lafayette on that date when a trolley-car, in an attempt to overtake the rickshaw, overturned the vehicle, throwing her on to the pavement and giving her concussion of brain and numerous bruises. Mrs. Doubrovo claimed that full responsibility should be placed on the trolley-car driver, who did not turn sufficiently to the right in overtaking the rickshaw she was travelling in.

The consequences of this accident were excessively serious, claimed the plaintiff, who asked for $22,887.20 for hospital and medical attendance as well as for the permanent invalidity caused by the accident.

NEGLIGENCE PLEA

The French Tramway Company was represented by Mr. J. Barraud, who said that the accident had occurred through the negligence of both the passenger and the rickshaw since it was for the former to watch the puller in order to prevent any false or clumsy manoeuvring. Counsel for the defence claimed that the rickshaw was itself trying to overtake another rickshaw at the time, so placing itself in the way of the trolley-car.

The case had several hearings before judgment was announced, giving the plaintiff $6,790.92 as compensation for the invalidity and hospital expenses. Dr. Sautell being appointed by the Court to determine the degree of invalidity of Mrs. Doubrovo.

THE EVACUATION MUDDLE

CRITICISM of the Hongkong Government's evacuation policy reached a new peak on Friday last when a fully representative gathering of husbands, mostly those whose families are now in Australia, met to draw up plans for dealing with problems caused by the Government order and to protest against the latest official decree which, while making further evacuation voluntary, debar those who have already been evacuated from returning to the Colony. The temper of the meeting shows how far the Government has blundered again in failing to recognise that its new line of policy would only give cause for much greater dissatisfaction and that those who did comply with the original wishes of the Government must feel that they had been given a raw deal. It is natural that those who have been put to a great deal of financial inconvenience to comply with the Government's behest should regard the present position as a gross injustice and it is also natural to expect them to seek every means possible to secure relief from the hardships which have been forced on them by tactless and ill-considered action.

THE PICTURE of aggrieved husbands seeking legal advice to restrain the Government from continuing a policy which has aroused a good deal of hostility to it is not pleasant to contemplate. A feeling of disloyalty to the local authorities has already been engendered which it will be most difficult to overcome now, and to judge from what has transpired, it does look as if the legal right of the authorities to have made evacuation compulsory in the first instance is seriously in question. The likelihood of this point being put to the test apparently induced the Government to seek clarification from the authorities at home—a step which, if it had been taken earlier when the hardships to the people concerned were explained to the Government, would undoubtedly have avoided a deal of the unpleasantness which has led to the present untenable position on which

SUN YAT-SEN'S ANNIVERSARY TO BE OBSERVED

The birthday anniversary of the Father of the Chinese Republic, Dr. Sun Yat-sen, tomorrow will be observed by the Chinese in Hongkong.

Measures for the observance of the occasion were discussed on Friday at a meeting attended by representatives of Chinese organisations, including the Hongkong-Kowloon Educational Association, the Hongkong Manufacturers' Union, the Hongkong-Macao Relief Association, the Hongkong branch of the Women's Advisory Committee of the National Association for the Promotion of the New Life Movement, the Hongkong Chinese Bankers' Association, the Hongkong Women's Soldiers' Relief Association, and the Hongkong Y.W.C.A.

It was decided that the day be declared a holiday for all Chinese schools and organisations, that flags will be hoisted, and that a commemorative meeting be held at the King's Theatre at 9 a.m.

Mr. J. D. Alexander and his wife have arrived in Hongkong from Kobe. Mr. Alexander is a steamship representative for the firm of Mackinnon, Mackenzie and Co. of Bombay. Mr. Alexander plans to reside and do business in Hongkong, until further assigned.

the local authorities are still attempting to dictate.

THE GOVERNMENT will find it difficult to answer the very pertinent questions now being put to it by those who are agitating for the return of the women and children who were evacuated, in the majority of cases against their wishes, to Australia. There is sound reason in the argument that if the situation in Hongkong has eased sufficiently to permit the women and children who are still in the Colony to remain, it should also warrant the return of those who have been sent away. As far as the regular military and naval units stationed in Hongkong are concerned, the authorities at home can, of course, insist on the evacuation of their families in keeping with what has been done in other parts of the Empire which are considered likely to be menaced by enemy action. To impose a similar policy on a civilian population, which shoulders the responsibility of preserving the economic and social life of a country far removed from the scene of hostilities, must bring about confusion and complaint from a very large majority of people whose commercial interests in the Colony have been affected by the manner and method used to put the Government's evacuation scheme into effect in Hongkong.

AT THE MEETING held on Friday, the suggestion was made that, as no redress appeared to be likely from the local authorities, an approach should be made direct to the Home Government. This proposal, which will no doubt be acted upon by the committee which was formed at the meeting to study the numerous problems which have been created by the Government's order, is an indication to what an extent the local Government has lost the confidence of the public. A more open and frank realisation of the facts would have avoided this unfortunate position and led to a greater co-operation between the public and the Government in the efforts which should be made to help Britain's war aims. As it is, the chaos into which the Colony has been thrown by this precipitous official action has had a serious effect on the contributions which Hongkong should be making to further Britain's war efforts.

Junk Fokis Wounded By Robbers

Lam Chuen, 52-year-old foki of junk T9734H, reported that about 5 a.m. on Saturday the junk left Luk Fung bound for Hongkong with 13 persons and a cargo of pigs and cattle on board.

About 8.30 that night when the boat was sailing near the Cape D'Agular light-house another craft approached and attempted to go alongside. Six shots were fired at the junk and Lam Chuen received a bullet wound in the head, while another foki, Yung Sing, was shot on the bridge of his nose.

Two large fishing boats which were fishing in the vicinity then sailed closer to the junk, whereupon the robbers' boat sailed away in the direction of Po Toi Island. Lam Chuen and Yung Sing were treated at the Queen Mary Hospital.

CARGO STOLEN

Po Mui, 25, master of junk T4938H, sailed from Shaikwan at 3 p.m. on Nov. 5 bound for Shan tai, Chinese territory, with a crew of four men, a cargo owner and general cargo.

At 10 p.m. when off the Nine Pins Islands the boat was attacked by another which fired several shots.

Po Mui found his junk at the Yumati Typhoon Shelter but the whole of the cargo, valued at $1,739, had been stolen.

LEFT WOMEN ON BOARD

Wong King, 42, widow, reported that at 10 a.m. on Nov. 2 she boarded junk T5487H as a passenger bound for Tai Ping, Tung Kung. There were five other females and 11 males on board and general cargo.

About 9 a.m. on Nov. 4, while the junk was near Lin Tin Island she heard shots fired and someone on board said, "The Japanese are coming. Lower sails." Later four Japanese sailors boarded the junk.

The men on the junk were searched, after which they were ordered on to a motorboat into which some cargo was also transferred.

The motorboat then went leaving the six women on the junk. As none of them knew how to sail the boat it drifted until the next day when it was taken in tow by a fishing boat.

TAXI DRIVER ROBBED

Mak Sui Tong, driver of taxi No. 138, reported that whilst he was proceeding along Tai Hang Road, Causeway Bay, about 10.10 last night he was held up by three men—one armed with a revolver and one with a dagger—and robbed him of 55 cents.

Mr. James Kallston has resumed his appointment as a Director of the Widows' and Orphans' Pensions.

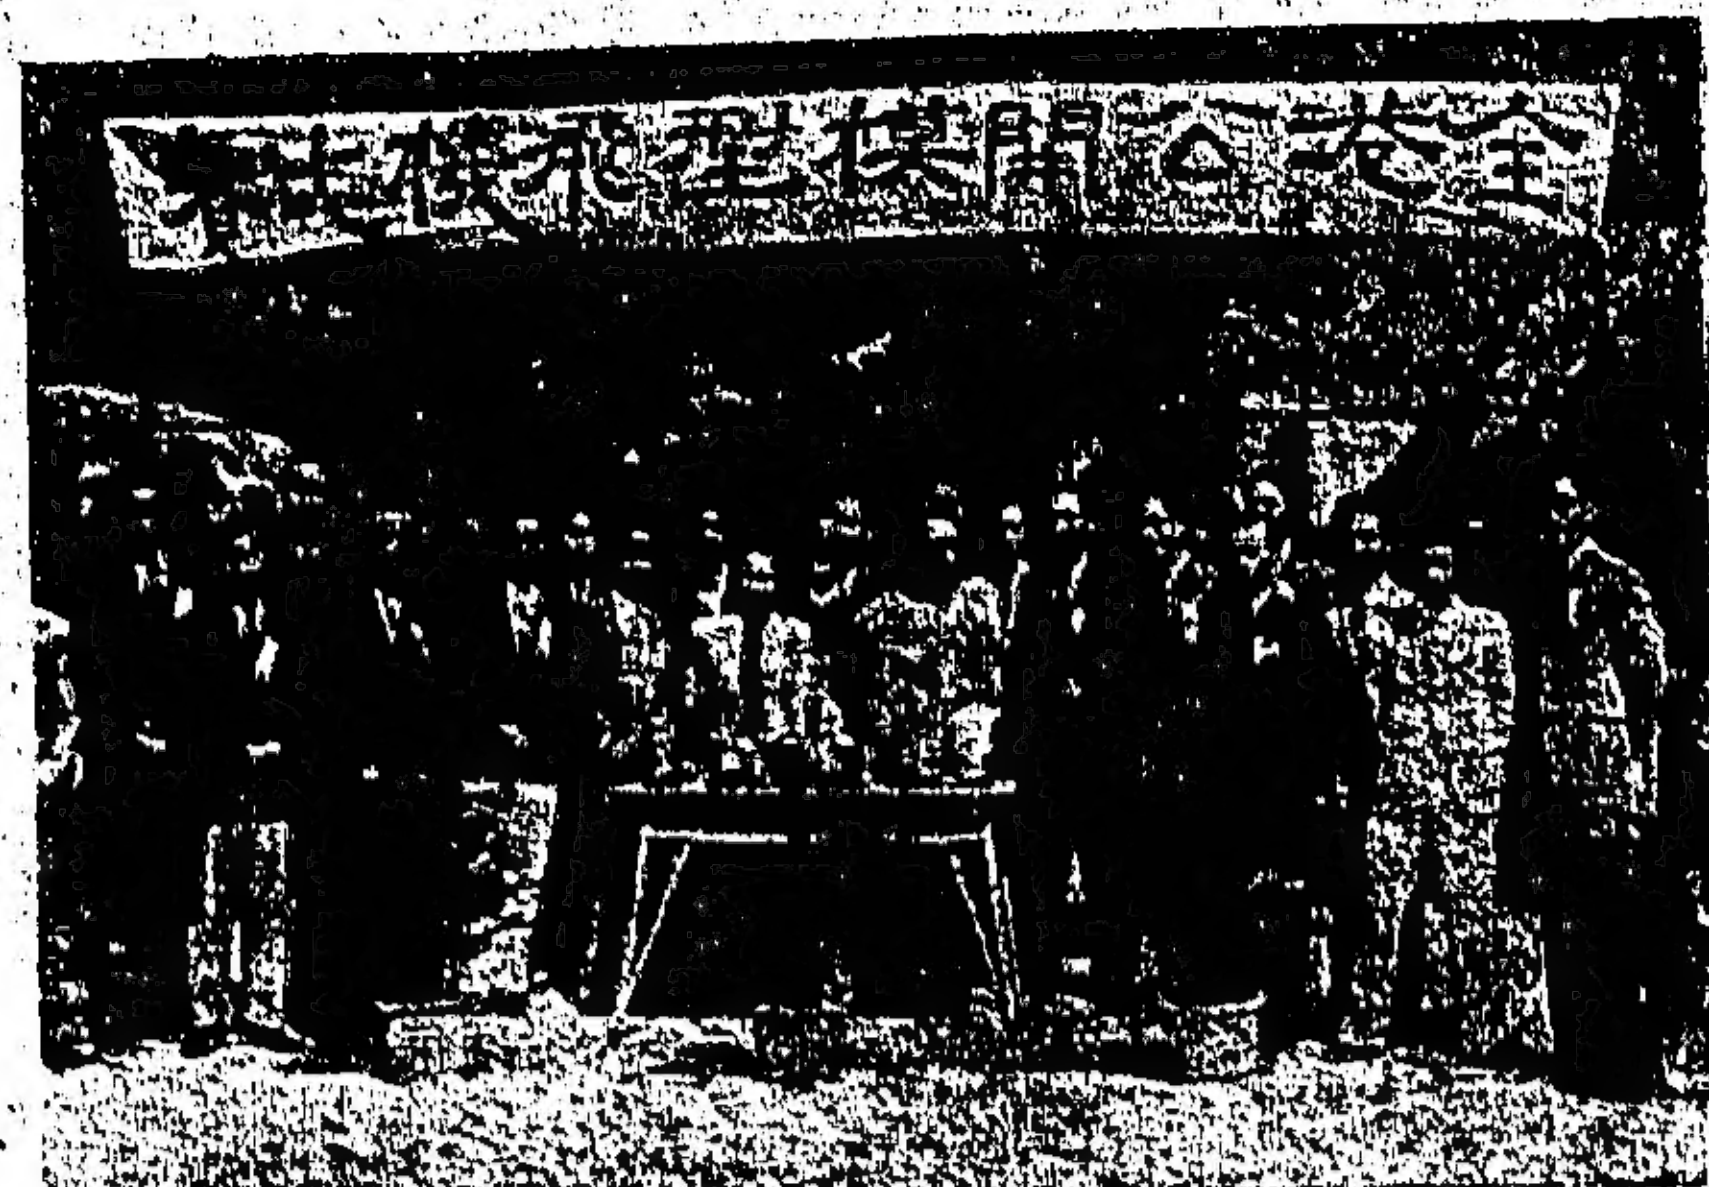

Lieut. A. A. Goodhue was a passenger through Hongkong to Manila to join his commandant of the Sixteenth Naval District. Lt. Goodhue is making his first trip to the Philippine Islands.

Mr. M. Ramchandani, arrived in Hongkong on Saturday, en route to India. Mr. Ramchandani is a salesman and has had his headquarters in Kobe, Japan, and Shanghai, China.

Mr. Kenneth B. Day, General Manager of the Philippine Refining Company Inc., was a passenger through Hongkong. Mr. Day is returning to his position after a six months vacation in the north-western part of the United States.

BIG MODEL AEROPLANE CONTEST SUCCESS

MANY HEART-BREAKING CRASHES

DESPITE MANY HEART-BREAKING CRASHES CAUSED BY STRONG WIND, TWO FORMER RECORDS WERE SMASHED YESTERDAY WHEN THE FIRST LARGE SCALE MODEL AEROPLANE CONTEST TOOK PLACE ON THE OPEN GROUND AT THE TERMINUS OF WATERLOO ROAD.

In the gas engine-powered duration event, Lim Sui-kee bettered the record set by Wong Hong-chung last year, by 106 seconds, the new mark being 256 seconds. Lau Kar-yim's fuselage duration model record, 243 seconds, set in November, 1939, was smashed by Ng Kam-ling's 314 seconds yesterday.

The glider duration event was much less than the old record held by Lo Kwong-yip of 53 seconds, being 54 seconds by Chan Lok-ying.

What was believed to be the most sensational flight was made by Chan Man-wai, although he did not gain any place in the contest. After taking off, his aeroplane flew two rounds above the airfield and made a perfect landing.

Lok Yung-cheung, the owner of motor plane No. 205, the closest possible imitation of a plane, with silver wings and body and a powerful motor, crashed and was out of the picture in the contest.

The winning plane in the fuselage duration event registered one of the most successful flights; the plane after climbing almost 100 feet landed beyond St. Teresa's Church.

THE WINNERS

The winners of various events and their records are as follows:—Glider Contest, Duration:—(1) Chan Lok-ying, 54 sec. (2) Wong Kam-cheung, 51 sec. (3) Chan Chichoi, 39 sec.

Fuselage Duration Model:—(1) Ng Kam-ling, 314 sec. (2) Pang Tak-lok, 292 sec. (3) Yu Chu-yu, 220, (4) Char Lee-ming, 187 sec. (5) Char Lee-ming, 183 sec. (6) Lo Kwong-yip (holder of last year's glider duration contest), 183 sec.

Gas Engine-Powered Duration Event:—(1) Lim Sui-kee, 256 sec. (2) Lim Yuet-yin, 115 sec. (3) Lim Yuet-yin, 78 sec. (4) Chan Yuchoi, 56 sec. (5) A. Silva Netto, 45 sec. and (6) Chan Lok-ying, 38 sec.

BIG ENTRIES

For the first time in the history of the Colony a big entry was recorded, the total entry being 102. The fuselage duration event, attracted 72 contestants while the glider contest and gas engine powered event had 18 and 12 participants, respectively.

The contest was officially opened by Mr. Chao Sui-ye, chairman, who made a brief speech. He was followed by Mr. Wu Kung-fu, representing General Wu Te-chen, who said that such a spirit would eventually improve China to become a scientific country. Professor Hsu Ti-shan, of H.K. University, and Mr. Fung Si-man, of the Committee also spoke.

The judges of the contest were Prof. Hsu Ti-shan, Mr. Cheung Lan-chow, Mr. Tang Chi-chin, Miss Lau Hing-sun, Mr. Wong Cho-fun, Mr. Tang Ho-cheung, Mr. Fung Wah-hin, and Mr. Lam Chit-sin.

VALUABLE PRIZES

Many valuable prizes were contributed by Takungpao, Eastern Model Aeroplane Company, General Wu Te-chen, Oversea Chinese A.A. Eurasia Aviation Corp, China National Aviation Company, H.K. National Women's Soldiers' Relief Association, H.K. Students' Relief Association, H. K. University S.U. Y.W.C.A., Canton University, W. Chen Company, Mr. Lau Tak-pu and Mr. S. Y. Chao.

The prizes included trophies, Browne gasoline motor coupons and many others. It is learned that the prizes will be distributed to the winners on Nov. 24.

Mr. A. V. Baker, Inspector of Police at Hongkong, has returned to the Colony after a vacation in the United States, particularly in Southern California.

Immigration Control Ordinance

The Immigration Control Ordinance was gazetted on Saturday, giving power to regulate the entry and departure of persons into and out of the colony, and to prohibit the entry of undesirable immigrants.

The Bill is based upon the recommendations of the Singapore expert, Mr. Middlebrook.

Some of the more important provisions in the Bill are appended. Every person who arrives in the Colony shall, if so ordered by the Immigration Officer, proceed as directed from the vessel on which he has arrived, or from the point of entry on the frontier at which he has entered, to a depot and shall remain at such depot until permitted to leave by the Immigration Officer.

SECURITY

13. (1) The Immigration Officer may by order, notice or otherwise impose such conditions either general or special as he may deem fit to attach to any permission granted to a person described in paragraph (a) or (b) of section 9 to land or disembark, whether for the purpose of residence or sojourn in the Colony or for transshipment at a port in the Colony or, in the case of a through passenger, during the stay in port of the ship in which he arrived, and may at any time vary or add to such conditions as he may deem fit.

(2) The Immigration Officer may demand and take such security, not exceeding in value two hundred and fifty dollars as he may deem fit to ensure the due fulfilment of any such condition.

(3) Any person who fails to furnish any security demanded under sub-section (2) may—(a) be refused permission to land or disembark in the Colony and be detained on board the vessel in which he arrived; or (b) be removed to a place of detention ashore and there detained pending an opportunity of returning him to his port of embarkation or of sending him to his destination; or

(c) if he is in a depot be either returned to the vessel in which he arrived or detained in the depot or other suitable place of detention pending an opportunity of removing him from the Colony.

16. (1) No seaman shall land or disembark from any vessel except with the permission of the Immigration Officer. Such permission may be subject to any condition which the Immigration Officer may think fit to impose.

(2) Every act, failure, neglect or omission whereby any requirement of this Ordinance or of any regulation thereunder is contravened shall be deemed an offence and shall be punishable on summary conviction by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars and imprisonment for any term not exceeding twelve months and by expulsion from the Colony on the order of the convicting magistrate; and any security furnished shall be liable to be forfeited by order of such magistrate.

NERVE CENTRE OF BAVARIA'S NETWORK OF ELECTRIC RAILS TURNED INTO MASS OF FLAMES: ONE OF HEAVIEST R.A.F. RAIDS

LONDON, Nov. 10 (Reuter).—The nerve centre of Bavaria's widespread network of electric railways, Munich's four-mile long sorting yard and railway workshops were turned into a "mass of flames" by the R.A.F.'s attack on Friday night.

This is one of the heaviest raids ever launched by the R.A.F. on a single objective—it lasted over 90 minutes—and pilots and crews who took part all agree that it was one of the most successful operations of recent months.

BIG JAPANESE DRIVE

Italy's entire miscalculated the fighting power of the Greeks and the hatred that the Greeks have borne against the Italians for years.

"So we may take it for granted that both dictators, and Signor Mussolini in particular, are doing some hard thinking as things are going badly for Italy. Furthermore, the Greek resistance is putting new heart into the Balkan people who have not bowed down to the Axis threat. Italy is now in mortal danger. Already our raids on Brindisi and other places have upset the morale of the Italians and it is our determination to take full advantage of that. This is now Italy's dilemma."

"There is another view. Can Germany afford to let the Greek war drag on? German forces are even now menacing the Greek right flank and the Germans can only attack it by going through Bulgaria. That would mean the implication of Turkey and that in turn means the possible implication of Russia."

"And so you see a reason for the invitation to M. Molotov to go to Berlin."

WORRYING WEEK

"Altogether, what with this Italian business, the Greek business and the re-election of President Roosevelt for a third term, last week has been a worrying one for the Axis. The bad humour of the Axis over the re-election of Mr. Roosevelt is growing more and more apparent."

"You have heard it said on many occasions that German propaganda is an example of efficiency. If you want to see this myth exploded, just consider what has been put out by German propaganda over the election issue."

"Firstly, there was an announcement of a plan that the dictators were preparing to put before Americans on election day. Then came Japan's entry into the Axis, to which both Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Cordell Hull gave an answer that brought England and the United States closer together."

"All these failed to work out according to the Axis wishes and a new one had to be tried and this was to present America with a clearly established new order in Europe, to show America that everything in the garden of Europe was lovely. Something went wrong with this plan also and France, despite M. Laval, and Spain, despite Senor Sener, could not be brought into it in time."

"Neither threats nor blandishments were any good and then on the eve of the polling came the attack on Greece and the Americans knew at once that the whole new order business was a pretence. The Axis propaganda was changed many times. First of all the result of the election in the United States did not interest them and then it was that whoever was elected it would make no difference to the European position."

ABUSED ROOSEVELT

"They had abused Mr. Roosevelt in the past just as severely as they had abused Mr. Churchill, but on the eve of the election they kept quiet. But now that Mr. Roosevelt has won, after a day or so all pretending in the Axis propaganda is vanishing and full play is given against the re-elected president."

"The tone is menacing and threatening. A Rome broadcast recently threatened America in the following terms: 'American internal affairs are of no interest to us, but we should like to point out that Mr. Roosevelt was compelled in his desire to get re-elected, to yell out that no American soldier would be sent abroad. Washington will continue to aid Britain, but the Axis has faith in its job and will do it. We advise all Americans to Railway lines were wrecked, locomotive sheds struck and the sorting yards became engulfed in a sea of fire as relays of the attackers rained down high explosive and incendiary bombs.

Good visibility—in some cases up to 50 miles—aided the R.A.F. in Friday night's attacks on Italy, states an Air Ministry communiqué.

The R.A.F. bombers were over Italian territory shortly after 10 p.m. (B.S.T.) and the leader of the force detailed for Turin quickly located the objective by the light of fires.

FIAT WORKS BOMBED

High explosive bombs were rained on the branch of the Fiat motor works at the southern outskirts of the city. An explosion within the factory area was clearly visible followed by outbreaks of fire.

The attack on the factory lasted for over half an hour and fires started in the early stage were intensified by fresh salvos of incendiary bombs from the following relays of aircraft.

One line of heavy calibre bombs overshot the target and fell on the nearby Fiat aircraft works causing a series of vivid white explosions.

Three strategic posts on the Turin Railways were bombed for fully 15 minutes and large fires were caused on all three points.

At Milan, the attack on the great Pirelli Electrical and Cable works at Sesto San Giovanni, a few miles north of the city, caused a series of fires which were still burning when the last salvo of high explosive bombs fell across the works at 11.10 p.m.

EXCEPTIONALLY HEAVY

LONDON, Nov. 10 (Reuter).—R.A.F. raids on Germany and German occupied territory during the week ending at dawn, Nov. 8, though less numerous than the previous weeks owing to the weather, were exceptionally heavy and successful and covered a particularly wide area.

Among the outstanding objectives were the oil tanks at Poggio Reale and the main line of the railway at Naples; the Krupp's armament works at Essen were attacked for over four hours when many thousands of fire bombs and tons of high explosives were dropped causing huge explosions and making the whole read the figures of British ships sunk in September and October.

"The figures were, of course, grossly exaggerated," said Mr. Lakin "but the interesting thing is that the Axis Powers, having failed in their invasion of Britain, have shifted from the aeroplane to the submarine. Mr. Churchill admitted that our shipping losses have been serious for some time past and he also admitted that our inability to use the ports on the west coast of Ireland had grievously hampered our work. We need however, attach no great significance to these losses."

ITALIAN BOAST

"A peculiar aspect of the submarine warfare is the boast of Italian propagandists that numerous Italian submarines have lately passed through the Straits of Gibraltar and that they are going to take part in the work of cutting Britain off from her main supplies."

"It is also interesting to recall that Spain occupied Tangier and described the occupation of it as based on restitution. Sir Samuel Hoare, British Minister in Madrid, has been asking General Franco and his Foreign Minister some questions about Tangier, while the Axis Powers are full of glee about it and say that the occupation of Tangier is making the English quake more than ever for the future of Gibraltar."

"We shall want to know more about this especially in view of Italy's threats to starve us out."

target area a sheet of fire visible 60 miles away.

In Berlin the Killenberg power station, the Putzstrasse, Lehrter, Potsdamer and Anhalter stations, the Spandau aero engine works and the goods yards and railway junctions were attacked. A terrific fire broke out at Killenberg power station spreading to at least half a mile square.

DAYLIGHT RAIDS

The submarine bases at Vegesack, and Lorient were attacked while daylight raids were made on the oil refineries and factory at Salzbergen and on Desbelder together with an attack on a convoy of eight or nine motor vessels of about 4,000 tons each.

A heavy attack was made on the Seebach shipyards and other dock buildings at Bremerhaven and over 30 separate fires were seen. The explosions were so violent that the crew felt them above the roar of the engines at several thousand feet.

At Emden, tons of high explosives and nearly a thousand incendiaries were dropped by aircraft making shallow, dive attacks, sometimes from less than 1,000 feet.

Altogether 25 raids were carried out against ports and shipyards, 10 against oil targets, 14 against railways and goods yards, 14 against industrial targets and a large number against aerodromes.

Our losses in all these raids were eight aircraft and the Germans lost one fighter and another probably destroyed.

tions production which had reached usually about the fourth year. Our army must be equipped, trained and perfected into a strong, keen and offensive weapon. Above all, our air force must add superiority of numbers to that of superiority of quality which in machines are still more in manhood than they displayed.

"We are straining every nerve to accelerate our production and with the ardent resolution of British labour, guided by science and improved organisation, I do not doubt that we shall succeed."

AID FROM AMERICA

Here was where help from across the ocean was especially valuable and he welcomed cordially the aid promised from the United States as well as the important contributions already received.

"The enemy are doing their utmost to cut us off from the vital supplies and the maintenance by sea power of the ocean routes is absolutely necessary to our victory. We are striving for the freedom of the nations against the oppressor, for the progress of peoples through self-government and for the creation of wider brotherhood among men which alone will bring back prosperity and peace," he said.

Amid cheers, Mr. Churchill expressed Britain's sympathy and admiration for the small heroic country of Greece now defending their soil against the latest Italian outrage.

PASSENGER JUMPS INTO HARBOUR

About 5 p.m. yesterday a Chinese male passenger on the Man Chi jumped overboard in an attempt to commit suicide, while the launch was on its way to Hong Kong from Shamshui. He was rescued by the crew of a motorboat.

On being brought over to Hong Kong, the would-be suicide was given some money by a well-dressed Chinese man who witnessed the incident, before being sent to the Queen Mary Hospital.

CHINESE WINS INT'L MARATHON RACE

UNKNOWN ATHLETE FROM SWATOW: FIVE INDIANS IN FIRST TEN

The first International marathon race run in Kowloon yesterday, over a distance of about 8½ miles, was won by an absolute unknown to the distance racing world of Hongkong, LEI YUK-FUNG, a 22-year-old athlete from Swatow, who finished a few yards ahead of Karam Bux, the H.K.S.R.A. champion.

Fazal Illahi, another Indian runner, was third, with Pte. Manson, the Royal Scots runner, fourth. It was a close race all the way.

There were two entries also in the women's section, the winner of this race, Miss Liu Shui-lan, finishing the 4-mile course for ladies in under 30 minutes, with Miss Wong Man-shang second.

In the first ten were five Indians, three Chinese and two Europeans. There were a number of other European and Indian entries, but they did not place among the next ten to finish.

The course of the race was from Gascoigne Road, from the starting post opposite the Alhambra Theatre, along Nathan Road towards the Star Ferry, turning into Salisbury Road up to the Railway Bridge, then along Chatham Road and Matauwei Road up to the Prince Edward Road intersection, cutting into Boundary Street as far as Nathan Road and then again onto Nathan Road to finish at the Alhambra Theatre.

The length of the course was 13,527 metres and there were 69 runners who finished out of an entry of about 90.

GOOD ORGANISATION

The Hongkong and Kowloon Tenants Association are to be congratulated on their initiative in having staged such a race, a sporting event to the taste of all communities locally, and on the organisation of the affair, that was very well taken care of.

There were silver trophies for the winners, the first man in receiving two handsome cups and a shield and the tenth a small shield. Banners were also given to the next six men in and medals to all the others who finished. Special prizes were given the last runner to finish and the youngest competitor.

There were a number of speakers at the prize-giving ceremony, among them Mr. Lau Tun-kwong, Mr. Ng Pa-ling, Chief Secretary of the Association, Mr. Lai Ching-ming, English Secretary, Mr. Lin Ping-chuen, Chairman, and Mr. Lei Sam-man.

PRIZE WINNERS

The following were the prize winners:

1. Lei Yuk-fung, 39 mins. 45 secs.; 2. Karam Bux, 39:50; 3. Fazal Illahi, 39:55; 4. Pte. Manson, 40:35; 5. Lukman Khan, 40:38; 6. Leung Nai-yick, 40:50; 7. Dalip Singh, 41:27; 8. A. Lewis, 41:37; 9. Yeung Chi-ho, 42:15; 10. Naranjan Singh, 42:30.

GREEK MOBILISATION IS NOW COMPLETED

LONDON, Nov. 10 (Reuter).—Greek mobilisation is now complete and the Greek defences are manned by half-a-million troops. The military authorities are highly satisfied that these two movements have been carried out within the fortnight of General Metaxas calling the Italian bluff, writes Reuter's Special correspondent in Greece.

Hitherto, all encounters have been between Greek outposts and the superior, but baffled, Italians columns. The first major clash is not expected before next week.

Only in the western Epirus sector have the Italians penetrated any distance towards the Greek main defences but the Greek defensive system in this area never envisaged holding the valley and the shifting of the Greek forces in conformity with the strategic plan gives the main line as the marsh-land governed by the "Metaxas Line" along the heights.

Greek advance posts in the Florida sector have immeasurably improved their positions by storming and capturing the heights dominating Koritza and its vital communication routes.

ALPINE TROOPS

Over 2,000 Italian Alpine troops were taken prisoner when columns of these soldiers rashly pushed forward in the central Pindus sector.

Reuter's Special correspondent with the Greek army in Athens says that a crack Italian Alpine Division which was encircled some days ago in the Pindus sector in the central front, may now be considered to have been annihilated. Military circles in Athens declare that this Pindus victory will go down in Greek history as the greatest feat in Greek arms since the Great War of Independence of 1821.

been elected as Democratic Senator for Nevada.

Senator Pittman was a warm supporter of President Roosevelt's foreign policy and he was quoted more than any other politician in the United States.

He was a vigorous opponent of the dictators and a strong critic of Japanese militarism and while remaining a friend of the democracies, he was outspoken in his condemnation of appeasement.

Speaking on the problem of undernourishment among Chinese soldiers at the Y. M. C. A. Discussion Group last night, Mr. Max Bickerton, of the Foreign Auxiliary to the Chinese Red Cross, said that bad feeling among these soldiers constituted a major handicap to the work of the doctors. The soldiers were being paid $12.50 a month and of this sum, $7.50 was taken monthly to pay for their board.

DEATH OF MR. CHAMBERLAIN

berlain's death in a talk in London last night, said: "There are many sad hearts today in Britain—sad at the thought of Mr. Chamberlain's death. Whatever individual opinion may have been about his policy, there is universal regret that so single-minded and sincere a man should not have lived to see the end of what he called 'the evil thing which we are fighting.'"

AROUSED ANIMOSITIES

"There was no man in this world more determined to see the overthrow of the evil tyranny of the dictators. It is strange that this man should have aroused such animosities among men and women and yet he did. But if anyone proved the blood-guilt of Herr Hitler and his regime it was Mr. Chamberlain."

Mr. Chamberlain had an active political life. From 1931 to October of this year he held office continuously. He was the son of the late Mr. Joseph Chamberlain and a half-brother of the late Sir Austen Chamberlain. He was elected to the House of Commons in 1918 and held the offices of Postmaster General, Minister of Health and Chancellor of the Exchequer. He succeeded Mr. Stanley Baldwin as Prime Minister in 1937.

THREE FLIGHTS

His name will be associated first and foremost with the events of September 1938. The three flights he made to see Herr Hitler won him overwhelming popularity and acclamation was accorded him even in Germany for his efforts to make countries settle international disputes by negotiations than by bloodshed.

He said then: "I believe in peace in our time." His action became the subject of great controversy, but none doubted the sincerity of the then Prime Minister to defend peace.

Under Mr. Churchill's leadership, Mr. Chamberlain plunged into the service of his country and helped his new leader. He resigned in October and the regret is that he has not lived to see victory for Britain.

MYSTERIOUS SINKINGS OFF AUSTRALIA

FIRST U.S. SHIP TO BE SUNK

LONDON, Nov. 9 (Reuter).—Two ships, one British and one American, have been sunk mysteriously off the Australian coast. It was announced in Sydney yesterday.

Though the name of the British vessel is not given, it was revealed that the American vessel, the first American ship to be sunk in the present war, was the "City of Rayville" (5,883 tons).

While Mr. William Hughes, Australian Navy Minister, suggested a mine was responsible, the crew of the American freighter all suspect sabotage.

BASS STRAIT CLOSED

Mr. Hughes added that a mine had been swept up off Wilson's Promontory and announced that the Bass Strait, between Australia and Tasmania, was now closed to shipping.

The British vessel, it is learned, carried no passengers and all but one of the crew of 56 are safe. They landed in three boats and were attended to at two coast towns.

All but one of the crew of the "City of Rayville" have been landed in Australia.

from Major C. R. Attlee, Lord Privy Seal, who says: "I think what interests us most is the courage he showed in carrying on when he was ill and his great sense of duty. He became Prime Minister at a difficult time and he never deviated from what he thought was the right course."

Mr. L. S. Amery, Secretary for India, said: "The country has lost a great servant and a great Englishman, who tried his hardest to serve peace. Those who were privileged to work with him knew of his fine character and warm-hearted disposition."

HISTORY WILL JUDGE

Mr. Leslie Hore-Belisha, former Secretary for War, said: "History will judge his achievements. He elevated a standard of duty and devotion to the State and his friends will remember the unaffected character of his life."

Mr. Ernest Bevin, Minister of Labour and National Service, said: "Whatever opinion may be held as to the policy he pursued no one could question his honesty of purpose and integrity of courage. I never doubted his determination to see the war through to victory once the die is cast. I feel that his passing is the passing of an age. The world he knew will never return."

SCHOLASTIC RECORD IS MAINTAINED

St. Paul's Girls' College Hold Speech Day

"Scholastically, our girls successfully maintained the school's record. Marked improvement was seen in English and Mandarin," remarked DR. (MISS) F. C. WOO, M.B.E., D.Ped., Principal of St. Paul's Girls' College, in her report presented at the Speech Day held in the Lee Hysan Hall on Saturday afternoon.

The Hon. Sir Shouson Chow, Kt., LL.D., a veteran supporter of the school, distributed the certificates.

Among those present on the stage, besides the Principal and Sir Shouson, were the Right Rev. R. O. Hall, Bishop of Hongkong, chairman, Hon. Sir Robert Kote-wall, Kt., C.M.G., LL.D., Mr. C. G. Solis (Director of Education) and Mr. Tang Shu-kin, M.B.E.

A fine programme of entertainment was presented in the course of the afternoon those contributing being the school choir, kindergarten, junior middle III, Tung Shik-kwong (solo, accompanied by Li Chok-tsang), Dorcas Cheung and May Chan (duet) and senior middle I who presented a Chinese play.

Wong Lok-ye, chairman, reported on the work of the Students' Association, while a speech of thanks to Sir Shouson Chow and those present was delivered by Lau Shu-fun.

PRINCIPAL'S REPORT

Presenting her report, Dr. Woo said:

Before I review the year's work, I want to express our most grateful thanks to our veteran supporter Sir Shouson Chow for coming here this afternoon to distribute the certificates to our successful students. Sir Shouson has sat on the Council of this school for nearly fifteen years and he still graces our meetings with his presence. He was also a member of the Building Committee who gave us these spacious quarters. We are more thankful to him than words can express.

While on this topic, I would like to tender our heartfelt thanks to our retiring Honorary Secretary, the Rev. Paul Tso, who for the past 12 years has borne the arduous duties connected with the Council. This place is being filled by Dr. F. I. Tseung who has very kindly consented to serve. We extend a hearty welcome to him as well as to Mr. C. H. Lam, son of Mr. Lam Woo, founder of the School, who has joined the Council.

Year in and year out I have expressed thanks to members of the Council for their untiring interest in this school. I now do so again, for without exception every one of them takes an active part in the government and administration of this school.

THE EVACUATION

This Speech Day should have taken place in July but owing to the evacuation and other unforeseen dislocations connected with recent political troubles, we were compelled to postpone the ceremony to this later date.

Coming now to the report proper, I am happy to record the outstanding event of the year, namely the celebration of the 25th Anniversary of the school in April last. It was an unqualified success and brought many distinguished guests, parents and old pupils to the school. They all admired the exhibition of the work of our girls.

Scholastically, our girls successfully maintained the school's record. Marked improvement was seen in English and Mandarin. During the year under review several competitions were held at regular periods to encourage a keener study of these two languages.

About 50 per cent of our graduates for 1939 entered various universities. All have passed their last year examinations. This school prepares girls to enter the faculties of science, medicine, education and even engineering. They are now in the University of Hongkong, Lingnan, Chungshan, South Western Associated University, St. John's as in Shanghai College and Wheaton College of America. I recently received news that one of our students studying at Wheaton College was placed fifth in a science examination among 204 students.

Another student worthy of note is one of the two hundred successful competitors chosen from among 8,000 candidates to qualify for entrance examination into the Sijth Western Associated University.

As for our 1940 graduates, three of them have been accepted as probationer nurses in the Queen Mary Hospital here, while another three entered various universities in China. Two of them qualified for entrance into the Hongkong University.

EVERY UNIVERSITY

I take this opportunity of emphasizing the fact that we train girls to enter into practically every university in China as well as in Hongkong, America and for Great Britain.

I now venture to say a few words about the health side of our work. As is repeated almost every year, we stress the importance of a sound body as well as a sound mind. Last year an experimental class in health was inaugurated under the auspices of the Health and Beauty League and it proved very popular with our girls.

Swimming continues to be a major attraction during the summer. Mr. D. I. Benson very generously donated all the prizes at our last aquatic sports and I take this opportunity once again to record our gratitude to him for this token of his interest. Class Senior Middle I captured the Arthur Woo shield awarded for scoring the highest aggregate of points in swimming.

The religious side of our work again occupied a leading place in the school during the year. Some 20 past and present students were confirmed while there were 6 baptisms.

Our girls are encouraged to participate in all activities, which promote character-building and self-government. Many have, in the course of the year, assisted at various locally organized efforts for charity and social welfare. As these are too numerous, I shall leave it to the Chairman of the Student Association to report separately to you.

Finally but certainly not least important, I want to say again a word of deep appreciation to my staff for another year of devoted and unstinted co-operation. We all deeply regret the loss of Miss Faith Hall from our ranks. Miss Hall is now principal of a school in India and we wish her every success there. We are deeply grateful to Mrs. Murdoch who has ably filled the vacancy left by Miss Hall.

PREPARE FOR LIFE

Some schools concentrate on preparing their girls for examinations, while others endeavour to excel in sport. Our aim is to prepare girls for life, so that when they leave the portals of this school they may be diffusers of light and life to all who come into contact with them. We realize that what China needs most today are men and women of character. We certainly want men and women of ability, but even this need is not greater than the cry for leaders of character who are willing to shoulder responsibilities and to make sacrifices for the rebuilding of a new and better China.

PROTECTED PLACES

Falling to appear before Mr. G.T. Lowry on Saturday, Lau Cho, 38, accountant, charged with keeping No. 32 Lyndhurst Terrace as a common gaming house for the purpose of pai kau, had bail of $75 estreated.

Eleven others, charged with taking part in gambling, also had their bail of $3 each estreated when they failed to answer their charges.

The premises were raided by the Police on a warrant at about 1.20 a.m. on Saturday morning and $8.48 picked up from the table was ordered to be put into the Poor Box.

MONEY THEFT ALLEGED

Alleged to have stolen from No. 36, Des Voeux Road Central on Nov. 8, $5,000 in Chinese currency, the property of Tung Yiu-sang, Sam Yiu, 29, barber, appeared before Mr. Lowry on Saturday.

Sam pleaded not guilty and hearing was fixed for Nov. 15, at 11.30 a.m.

Det.-Sgt. P.J. Cullinan is in charge of the prosecution.

STOLE TYPEWRITERS

Pleading guilty to two counts of larceny, Ng Kwan-tak, 23, unemployed, was sentenced to 12 weeks hard labour by Mr. Lowry on Saturday.

Ng was charged with stealing an electric fan and a mah jong set from No. 136, Connaught Road Central on May 19, and two typewriters from the National City Bank of New York on Oct. 13.

Det.-Sgt. C. Byron said that defendant was arrested on Friday on information.

When questioned Ng also admitted the larceny in the second charge. Defendant entered the National City Bank on Oct. 18 and walked out with two typewriters. He dumped one into the harbour and the other, which was damaged, he gave it to another man, who was convicted on a charge of receiving recently before the same magistrate.

HEARING FIXED

Hearing was fixed for Nov. 29 at 2.30 p.m. of the case in which three Chinese charged in connection with the robbery, appeared before Mr. Barnett, on Saturday.

Two of the defendants, Lo Kan, 28, unemployed, and Cheng Tim, 22, unemployed, were charged with robbing Mrs. Potts of a platinum and diamond wrist watch at Mount Davis Road, Pokfulam on Oct. 22, while the third, Chan Cheuk, 25, unlicensed hawker, was charged with conspiring with the first two defendants on Oct. 12 to commit the robbery.

Det. Sub-Ins. R. Cunningham is in charge of the case.

GAMING HOUSE

A fine of $50 was imposed on Chan Sap, 26, unemployed, by Mr. Barnett on Saturday when Chan pleaded guilty to a charge of keeping the first floor of No. 365 Hennessy Road as a gaming house for the purpose of tea.

Det.-Sgt. Morrison prosecuted.

RETURNED BANISHEES

Pleading guilty to returning to the Colony before the expiration of his period of banishment, Kong Kwok, 22, unemployed, was sentenced to three months by Mr. Barnett on Saturday. Kong was banished for 10 years on May 6, 1939. Defendant had returned twice.

Appearing on a similar charge, Lam Yan, 28, unemployed, who was banished for life on Nov. 8, this year, was also sentenced to three months.

THEFT FROM CAR

Charged with stealing one brown European style jacket and one rattan basket containing books from a private car, No. 5586, which was parked outside the Jockey Club, on Nov. 9, Hung Cheung, 43, unemployed, who admitted the offence, was sentenced to two months' hard labour by Mr. Barnett on Saturday. Hung was also recommended to be expelled from the Colony.

Det.-Sgt. V.M. Morrison said defendant was seen by an Indian constable carrying the jacket and basket. When questioned he admitted stealing them and took the constable to the car.

SALESMAN FINED

Pleading guilty before Mr. Lowry on Saturday to a charge of stealing from No. 61, Des Voeux Road Central two cases of canned pork and three cases of canned peas, valued at $33, Cheung Muk-shing, 23, unemployed, and Li Shing, 30, salesman, were sentenced to three months' hard labour and fined $50 respectively.

In imposing the fine on second defendant his Worship remarked that in view of his clean record he did not wish to send him to prison.

UNREGISTERED MUI-TSAI

A 28-year-old married woman, Hui Yue-po, was charged before Mr. K. M. A. Barnett on Saturday with keeping an unregistered mui-tai, Hui Wong-ho, 12, at the above address.

Defendant denied the charge and stated that the girl was not a mui-tai but a distant niece. The case was adjourned to Wednesday.

AT KOWLOON

LARCENY OF APPLES

A fine of $20 or, in default, a month's hard labour was imposed by Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen on Saturday on Lai Tak, 25, unlicensed fruit hawker, for larceny of two baskets of apples.

Pearl River Opened

FOR PASSENGER TRAFFIC ONLY

The Pearl River was officially opened on Saturday by the Japanese authorities after a closure of over two months to all traffic except military and naval craft.

Though no official advice has been received by shipping companies, who, consequently, have not prepared any plans for resumption of services, it is learned that two special conditions attach to resumption of services between Hongkong and Canton and Macao and Canton.

All ships going to Canton will be allowed to carry passengers only, which must not exceed 100, and all passengers, whether or not in possession of cholera inoculation certificates, will have to go into quarantine for examination.

British vessels will be allowed a weekly sailing while Japanese ships will sail twice a week.

POLICE REPORTS

While walking along Nathan Road on Friday afternoon Mrs. Danbrowsky, wife of Sgt. H. Danbrowsky of the Hongkong Police, had her wrist watch, valued at $80, snatched from her.

Mr. J. Barrow, District Officer North, has reported the theft of his car No. 1408 which was parked at Middle Road, near the Peninsula Hotel between 7 p.m. and midnight on Friday.

The theft of a wallet containing $119 in money and private papers, on Wednesday has been reported to the Police by the Rev. Frank Short.

Sgt. Gordon conducted the arrest.

INSUFFICIENT EVIDENCE

A Portuguese youth, Leslie Castro, 18, who was charged with harbouring a girl under the age of 21 without permission and abducting the same girl, Pauline Tsang, 18, was discharged.

Inspector McKeon, who prosecuted, said that there was insufficient evidence against the defendant.

WOMAN DISCHARGED

An Kiu-ping, married woman, who was charged with larceny of furniture, property of Mrs. I. D. Lee, by bailie, was discharged by Mr. E. Himsforth on Saturday.

PROTECTED AREA

Appearing on remand, a Chinese Government officer, to Lo Yuen-lip, 30, was fined $10 by Mr. Himsforth on Saturday for possession of a camera in a protected area, Chuk Yuen Village.

Sgt. Whitley, who prosecuted, said that the film had been developed and nothing was exposed.

SHAKEN FRANCE HAS REVOLUTION: PETAIN TO DE-AMERICANISE NATION

VICHY, OCT. 27.—FRANCE'S FIFTH REVOLUTION IN A CENTURY AND A HALF IS A BLOODLESS ONE, a strange and silent reformation which has failed, thus far, to stimulate the slightest opposition or to raise a smile or a song to the lips of the nation. Gay France has become blue France as an unusual calm has settled over a crushed nation.

THE UNUSUAL SILENCE IS THE MOST STRIKING FEATURE OF THE CHANGE. This is partly due to an artificial cause, the suppression of automobile traffic by the gasoline famine. Fewer than 1,000 automobiles are operated in the big cities, Paris, Lyons, Marseilles and Bordeaux, while there are country roads where days pass without an automobile being seen.

MOURN WAR DEAD
Generally, France has taken its swift defeat to heart and is mourning the war dead—now officially announced to exceed 60,000 which is not far from the total figure of all American war dead from illness and wounds in two years of the world war. People neither sing nor speak loudly in the streets. The blare of radios from storefronts and through open windows is silenced.

There is no visible gaiety, and indoors theaters are only half-filled and the films and plays offered are historical for the most part, such as Sacha Guitry's revival of Pasteru, which is the outstanding play of the Paris season.

One reason for France's silence is that the entire list of war dead is unknown, and that there are still nearly 2,000,000 soldiers and officers unaccounted for. Of these 1,800,000 are believed to be prisoners in German camps in France and Germany.

But there is no list of their names and they have no means of communicating with their families. There is no record of the number or names of war wounded still in hospitals on the German side of the lines, and there has never been a complete or even an approximate casualty list.

Many demobilized soldiers still are in the army camps because of the travel restrictions imposed by Germany which prevent them from returning to their homes in the former battle regions, or in the zone north of the Loire river. They are unable to communicate with their families which, often are, are in the southern France with no mail address and no communication with their former homes.

1,500,000 FAMILIES HESITANT
Because of that uncertainty, more than 1,500,000 families hesitate to mourn their war dead. There is always a possibility that a missing soldier is a prisoner, or in a hospital. For that reason, very little widows' black is seen in the streets. Army headquarters and the war office are besieged with requests for news of missing men, but until the International Red Cross completes its census of German prison camps and catalogues the names of the French prisoners, it will be impossible to check off army rosters to find an approximate list of war dead.

The German army buried the French dead on the German side of the lines. Wherever the dead soldiers were identification tags on their wrists, the graves were marked but often the temporary cemeteries were later destroyed in further air bombing.

NO RECORDS
Many were buried along roads, the same as the civilian refugees dead, and the graves marked by simple branches placed upright in the ground. German authorities say they have no record of those burials. That completes the confusion caused by the loss of most of the regimental records in the collapse and hasty retreat.

This uncertainty has led to a silent acceptance of the heavy reforms decided by the Petain-Laval government. The silence does not signify indifference, because the country is not indifferent to its fate. National humiliation over the defeat still is tremendous.

The nation ardently desires responsibilities to be fixed, and for that reason the government's prompt creation of the supreme court and its regulatory charging that court with fixing the war guilt of those who had the responsibility but failed to prepare France for the war, and those who led it into war with the knowledge that it was in a state of unpreparedness, has been satisfactory to the country.

The Riom trials have centered considerable attention, but France does not regard these trials as a "purge" of a beaten regime. Contrarily the word "purge" is never used in connection with the trials.

RESPONSIBILITIES FIXED

There is a precedent for the war guilt trials, because after previous disastrous defeats, various French regimes periodically fixed responsibilities and sent soldiers and statesmen to prison. In this case, the purge must be painless because the government by suppressing the death sentence for political crimes made it impossible to send any of the Riom indicted personalities to the firing squad—except perhaps anyone convicted of plotting against the security of the state.

Amid national silence, the Petain-Laval government proceeds methodically with its reforms. It has already suppressed parliament, dissolved secret societies, suppressed the CGT and the patronal trusts which were responsible for the reactionary and the extremist agitation which provoked costly strikes and lockouts—both now are illegal—terminated liberal economy and now is in process of changing the morals of the nation.

GOVT'S INTENTION

It is the Government's intention to de-Americanize France. In the 20 years which followed the world war, France adopted many American ideas and methods, and not always the best. Marshal Henri Philippe Petain blames it for the softening of the race which provoked the catastrophe. France was the first Americanized country of Europe, rode in American luxury cars, smoked American cigarettes, drank American cocktails, went to American movies, and even imported American clothing to a country which is famous as the cradle of dressmaking.

It is Petain's intention to Europeanize France. He argues that France must live among Europeans, in the new order of things, hence must adapt itself to continental ways. Luxuries will give way to necessities.

TO BAN AMERICAN GOODS

He has ordered restrictions and privations and further decrees will make it difficult to import American automobiles, even American reaping and harvesting machinery, typewriters, cameras and other industrial "luxuries" which Petain has ordered France to do without in a simplification of its standard of living and a return to the land. Through the new industrial control committees, the government will be able to control salaries as well as prices, hence by cutting out imports, and making France live as much as possible on its home production, for the provisional era of reconstruction, the government intends to force a lowering of the living standard. Petain feels that a rich, rural France is stronger, morally and materially, than a poor, industrialized France.

RURAL FRANCE

All his efforts are pointed toward an improvement of the rural standards of living, electrification of the countryside to modernize farm methods, extension of the rural credit system to carry farmers through lean periods and make country life so appealing that workers will quit the cities—where the lure of higher salaries will be lessened—and return to the land.

He feels that in that process, France can abandon luxuries without abandoning its pride and that in the future community of European nations as the statesmen of the conquering nations will define it, a strong rural France with 40,000,000 closely knit Frenchmen will have a better chance than an industrial France, torn by class warfare, political turmoil and social strife such as weakened France in the past 20 years, when the great national pastime was overthrowing cabinets.

Yugoslav Demarches

BELGRADE, Nov. 9 (Reuter).—The Yugoslav Government yesterday made demarches in Athens, Rome and London hoping that steps would be taken to avoid a repetition of incidents such as the recent bombing of Monastir and reserving the right to claim indemnity for injuries and damage due to bombing on the basis of the results of the enquiry into the incident.

BLOODLESS RUBBER BOOM IN N.E.I.

U.S., JAPAN BEST CUSTOMERS

BATAVIA, Nov. 9 (Reuter).—A sharp increase in orders from the United States and Japan has caused a sizable rubber boom in the Netherlands East Indies, a semi-official Japanese report declared yesterday.

The United States, one of the best customers of the N.E.I. rubber industry between January and September this year, bought 245,319 tons of unrefined rubber, compared with 129,100 tons in the corresponding period last year.

United States interests are expected to purchase 150,000 additional tons before the end of the year, which would bring the total to more than 350,000 tons compared with 170,000 for the whole of last year.

Industrials predict that N.E.I. total production for the year will amount to 530,000 tons, of which 64 per cent will be exported to the United States.

CHINA'S FINANCIAL POSITION ANALYSED

The war is many times more expensive for Japan than for China, writes Vladimir Rogoff, former Tass correspondent in China, in the latest issue of the "World's Economics and World's Politics" published by the Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R.

Japan's financial difficulties are universally known while China's relative financial stability is to many a regular "enigma," says Rogoff, who explains the situation by the fact that the National Government has successfully overcome many difficulties during the war owing to the support it received from the entire population.

China's rich resources and large savings held by the Chinese Government and people have enabled National China to finance a prolonged war.

The author further says that China possesses considerable fiat reserves, exceeding several times those of Japan. In the opinion of Chinese and foreign experts, China has quite a sufficient store of silver to finance the war for another three or five years.

Speaking of the series of financial measures taken by the Chinese Government, Rogoff points out that these measures allow the achievement of Chinese currency stabilization and frustration of the Japanese scheme to flood the occupied areas with paper currency.

In conclusion, the author says that a steady continuation of the Chinese war of liberation and a further strengthening of Chinese unity will further make it possible for China to make full and expendent use of her abundant resources to provide her with the means of war.—(Central News)

U.S. WAR SUPPLY OUTPUT FOR BRITAIN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10 (Reuter).—A "rule of thumb" whereby Britain and Canada are to get 60 per cent. of the United States war supply output was announced by President Roosevelt at his Friday press conference.

He said that this would include large bombers and ammunition, of which the United States is already keeping 55 per cent. and selling 45 per cent.

He made it clear that this arrangement can be revoked immediately, if it is to the detriment of the American armed forces.

It is officially stated that an army of 1,000,000 men will be ready in the United States in four months' time.

ANTI-SABOTAGE MEASURE

An Order issued on Saturday under Defence Regulations decrees that nothing shall be put on board any ship (except on a river steamer) or on any aircraft in this colony, except as cabin baggage, unless it has been examined and passed for shipment by a revenue officer.

The order is apparently a precaution against sabotage as Paragraph 7 states that the revenue officer may seize and detain anything which he has reasonable grounds to suspect to be or to contain an article likely to impair the efficiency or impede the working or movement of any ship or aircraft.

The master of a ship or pilot of an aircraft will be held equally responsible in cases of breach of the Order.

Compensation Offer

SHANGHAI, Nov. 9 (Reuter)—The sum of $405,000 has been offered as compensation to the owners of five Portuguese-registered coastal steamers which were seized by the Japanese naval authorities some time last year, stated the Shun Fao yesterday.

The steamers are now run by the Japanese-sponsored "Central China Company."

All members of the crew have been replaced by men engaged by this new Japanese shipping arm.

NO SURPRISE RESULTS IN HOCKEY TOURNEY

University Again Beaten: Hard Going For C.B.A.

The Hockey Association Tournament matches yesterday produced no surprise results. Five games were played out of the seven on the programme and a number of teams were seen in action for the first time.

At Lyceum, 5TH A.A. "B" beat the 2ND M.T.B.'S 6-0, the Navy side playing gamely on to the end without easing up their defence where many another team would have been discouraged.

UNIVERSITY, beaten 3-2 by the 2nd M.T.B.'s last Sunday, went down again to a score of three without reply against 5TH A.A. "A." The winners of this match went down 8-3 to Royal Engineers last week.

In the only game played in the morning, CENTRAL BRITISH ASSOCIATION found the going difficult against the A. N. OTHER XI, "up to full strength this time, and only managed to win 1-0.

NOMADS beat the ROYAL CORPS OF SIGNALS 2-0 in another game.

At Boundary Street, POLICE "B" beat the GUNBOATS by the odd goal in five.

C.B.A. HELD

The A. N. Other XI, stronger on paper with the inclusion of D. McLellan at pivot, held C.B.A. to one goal in a game that produced little good play and many a scrappy moment.

C.B.A. were unchanged from last week, the team taking the field being the same that lost to Kumano by the goal in three except for Woolgar, who replaced F. R. Kernan.

The A. N. Other XI listed several newcomers, Saxby at right-back, McLellan at pivot, held C.B.A. to one goal in a game that produced little good play and many a scrappy moment.

The teams—

5TH A.A. "A."—L/Bdr. Breddick; Hav Dalip Singh, Nk. Muhd. Din; Nk. Rahmat Khan, L/Nk. Karam Singh, L/Nk. Lakha Singh; L/Nk. Ghulam Ali, Nk. Muhd. Akbar, Buv. Abdul Rahman, Gnr. Sardara Singh and L/Nk. Mutam Singh.

UNIVERSITY—N. C. Sen Gupta; S. S. Kor, O. C. Leow; Hukam Singh, S. A. Vanar, B. K. Ng; K. S. Oh, Chelliah, L. H. Tan, N. Lingam and Hans Raj.

POLICE "B" WIN

At Boundary Street, Police "B" beat the Gunboats by the odd goal in five. The Police were stronger in defence, and showed also a forward line that did not lack strength if it lacked combination.

Narwant Singh opened the scoring for Police, Colard equalising and Channan Singh again putting Police ahead before half-time. After the interval, Narwant Singh put Police further ahead. The fifth goal was Gammell's.

The teams—
Police "B"—Balwant Singh; Mohar Singh, Booda Singh, Iqbal Singh, Joginder Singh, Darbara Singh; Gurbachan Singh, Rattan Singh, Narwant Singh, Channan Singh and Ajab Singh.

GUNBOATS—Gray; Taylor, Major; Croft, Neal, Burn; White-side, Gemmell, Colard, Smith and Felman.

NOMADS BEAT SIGNALS

At the Recreio ground, King's Park, Nomads beat the Royal Corps of Signals by two clear goals. S. A. Reed scored both, one in each half. On the day's play, the Nomads were a better team both in defence and attack.

The teams—
C.B.A.—T. Lockhart; D. Parsons; N. B. M. Whitley; W. Ure, F. S. D. Whitley, D. S. Blake; D. T. Smith, G. D. Woolgar, E. Fowler, M. Dunne and F. Fowler.

A. N. OTHER XI—V. M. Benwell; Saxby, Lt. J. P. Gunner; Jordan, D. McLellan, Morgan; Spenceley, McGahan, Gilchrist, Ireson and Bates.

GAME TEAM GOES DOWN

The 2nd M.T.B.'s went down gamely to a much stronger team and did not loosen up on their defence at any stage. Led 6-0, they resisted to the final whistle.

Playing on their home ground, 5th A.A. "B" had the advantage of a pitch they were accustomed to and one that the Navy players found it difficult to keep their footing upon on occasion. There was a good deal of loose sand and gravel strewn about and this did not help matters.

Showing up to advantage a forward line that could find its way to the opposite goal, the Gunners found it difficult at first to beat the M.T.B.'s defence, but first McCadden and then Pidgeon scored and confidence had received a considerable uplift by half-time where they were concerned.

In the second half, the navy team resisting stoutly, McCadden, who appears as promising a centre-forward as Homburg was for the R.E.'s last year, scored three more and Pidgeon added the sixth goal. There were a good number of spills and the ball had a nasty habit of rising off the ground.

The teams—
5th A.A. "B"—Gnr. Delahunt; Sgt. Woods, Bdr. Doyle, L/Bdr. Speed, Bdr. Barracough, Gnr. Eggington, Sgt. Coughlin, Gnr. McCadden, Bdr. Pidgeon and Gnr. Woods.

2ND M.T.B.'s—Hempstoll; Hills, Lt. Cmdr. Boldero; Baker, Richards; Elliott, Hall, Deakin, Collinwood and Kennedy.

UNIVERSITY LOSE

University went down 3-0 to 5th A.A. "A" at Lyceum, the Indian artillerymen requiring a number of minutes to get accustomed to their opposition. University, without W. Abraham, did not look at any stage a promising team, but the undergraduates fought it out to a finish.

REUNION OF LA SALLE OLD BOYS

The first reunion dinner of the La Salle Old Boys' Association held at the Cafe Wiseman on Saturday night was a most enjoyable function and was largely attended.

Mr. Louis Allaye, President of the Association, was in the chair and others present included the Rev. Father B. C. Kelly, Warden of Ricci Hall, Hongkong University; Brother Cassian, representing Brother Almar, Director of La Salle College and Hon. President of the O.B.A.; and Mr. F. M. Castro, Hon. Secretary of the Association.

Following dinner, Mr. Allaye, in a brief speech, reviewed the activities of the Association, which was formed eighteen months ago, and then introduced Fr. Kelly.

Father Kelly referred to the good qualities of La Salle students and said that he could at once distinguish a La Salle undergraduate at the University.

Father Cassian also spoke. Mr. Castro read a letter from Brother Almar in which he thanked the Association for so kindly inviting him to the function which he was unable to attend. Bro. Almar also wished the La Salle O.B.A. every success.

In conclusion, Mr. Castro, replying to a compliment paid by Fr. Cassian, said that it was most gratifying to hear his (Mr. Castro's) name connected with the success of the Association, but added the Hon. Secretary, it was the Committee that had worked so untiringly to make the organisation a success.

ROYALS BEAT POLICE 3-1

Playing at Sookunpoo yesterday, the Royal Scots defeated the Police by three goals to one in a First Division League football match.

The Police took the lead early in the game through Howlett.

The Royals renewed their efforts and, after several attempts, scored the equaliser through Hossack, who headed the ball in from a beautiful pass from Gilroy.

BACKS PLAY WELL

The Royals had a more formidable forward line, but the Police backs, Blackburn and Parker, played a splendid game.

Shortly before the end of the first half, the Royals were awarded a corner from which Clarke headed.

In the second half Royals made sure of the issue when during a melee, Manning, Police custodian, rushed out and Gilroy put the ball into the empty net.

ROYAL SCOTS: Bankier, Naysmith, Fraser, Parnaby, Falconer, Clarke, Garris, Marshall, Hossack, Munro and Gilroy.

POLICE: Manning, Blackburn, Parker, Gordon, Gough, Pope, Wong Man-kwal, Howlett, Fan Kwai-chol, Ferrier and Lau Pih-hong.

JUNIORS WIN

In the Second Division, Royal Scots beat the 30th R.A. by one goal to nil.
